

Zurich, 28. April 2010

Change in the management board of Devoteam Genesis AG

We would like to inform you that the business partners of many years and co-founders of the company Genesis Communication, Thomas Lack and Urs Zumstein, will be leaving the company Devoteam Genesis AG at the end of May 2010.

To strengthen the management team Mr Michael Schnegg will be added to the management board in the position of sales manager.

The management board of Devoteam Genesis AG now consists of the following members:

- Kurt Bartsch, co-founder of Genesis Communication, CEO
- Martin Schor, in the company for more than 10 years, head of services
- Michael Schnegg, in the company for 10 years, sales manager for Switzerland

This ensures that Devoteam Genesis will continue to have an experienced and highly motivated management team consisting of ideally qualified colleagues who have been at the company for many years. This means we can continue to provide you with optimum support in the transition phase and also in the future.

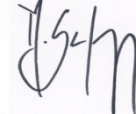

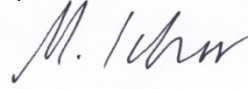

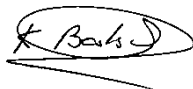

Thomas Lack and Urs Zumstein would like to extend their thanks here for the trust and good cooperation between partners in the last 14 years.

The new management board guarantees that business relations with you as a customer and partner will continue to run smoothly in the future.

If you have any questions please contact Kurt Bartsch under 044 455 60 81.

Kind regards,
Devoteam Genesis AG

The new management board: Kurt Bartsch(CEO), Martin Schor, Michael Schnegg

The departing members: Thomas Lack,

Urs Zumstein

